REMUNERATION
Is the pricing clear and transparent to end customers and others in the chain?	Yes, the pricing is clear to all and is detailed on the NB/RNWL schedule.
How will we ensure we continue to operate fair pricing practices for this product?	All renewals are reviewed annually to ensure the best possible terms are provided. Terms and conditions are detailed within the DOA Underwriting Guide. Annual rate increases and commissions are in keeping with the individual binding agreements with the ultimate insurer.
Does the commission splits agreed between Insurers / Underwriters / Brokers bear proportionate resemblance to the work being done for the client?	The remuneration that DOA receives from Insurers is commensurate with the work undertaken and the account management procedures that are required of us. The remuneration varies slightly between Insurers but on average is around 32.5% which is in keeping with the market standards for Underwriting agencies of our standing. Remuneration being ceded to our broker partners is in keeping with market standards and varies slightly but on average amounts to between 65% to 75% of the total commission received. On occasion, modified commissions may be individually agreed between DOA and the Broker at Inception or renewal. This is considered fair and reasonably reflects the amount of work involved by each party on behalf of the client. A review of down-line commissions has been undertaken and is considered to be fair and reasonable.
Are Insurers / Underwriters / Brokers making additional money through fees, charges, and premium finance arrangements?	The Standard Fees are £35 applied to MTA's and a maximum 10% of Return Premium on Cancellations. The below shows the charges applied at New & Renewal review, in relation to the Premium. $< £500 = £65$ $£501 - £1,000 = £75$ $£1,001 - £2,499 = £85$ $£2,500 - £4,999 = £100$ $£5,000 - £9,999 = £150$ $> £10,000 = £200$ Higher fees my occasionally be applied to support additional time input where required. There are no hidden charges. Fees are approved by Insurers and stated on the NB/RNWL schedules. Premium finance is not actively sold. Our Brokers add their own fees. We have reviewed these fees and believe fair value is being maintained throughout.

	PRODUCT VALUE
Is everyone in the distribution	In conjunction with carefully vetted and well-respected Insurers, chain providing ultimate value to	DOA has developed this policy wording specifically to meet the the end consumer?	needs of the clients operating within this trade sector. Pricing and coverage are regularly monitored to provide the best levels of cover for the best price to ensure value and peace of mind. We also only deal with professional Insurance intermediaries who are competent within this sector to provide the advice and service required for the end consumer.
	DOA have undertaken a review of down-line broker fees and additional charges, and these are considered to be fair and reasonable.

Does the product in question provide value to end customers both now, for the foreseeable future i.e., policy term, and at potential future renewals? If not, what further actions are required? Yes. DOA also review policy wordings on a regular basis to ensure the best cover is maintained/provided.

Each client case is reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that best pricing and coverage is offered in order to provide security and peace of mind. In addition, our overall review of this product and PROD MI assures us the product provides value to end customers.

MONITORING/ONGOING REVIEW

How will the product be continuously monitored and regularly reviewed, and who by?

The product will be continually monitored and regularly reviewed at least annually or when any significant changes are made, to ensure the product remains suitable for the intended market. A product performance review is now in place, consisting of data capture and analysis covering quote conversion, renewal retention, cancellations & claim repudiations. A dedicated Product Oversight & Governance Committee has been established, working with our Insurer partners to ensure all compliance with the new requirements and we also have a Product Oversight & Governance Policy & Procedure covering our review and monitoring framework.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Do you foresee any Conflicts of Interest?

• Making an unfair and/or unreasonable profit at the customer's expense

Premium rates are pre-determined based on nature of trade and theft area and would be adjusted based on perceived risk quality and claims experience, using the DOA Underwriting Guide.

• Awarding unfair, unreasonable and/or non-transparent fees in connection with the insurance mediation service the customer uses

The fee structure, which has been agreed by the panel of insurers, is fair and reflects the amount of work involved. Higher fees may occasionally be applied to support additional time input where required. Fees are clearly stated on the NB/RNWL schedules.

• Add-ons – balancing the benefit to the business with the needs of the customer

The Package insurance policy is sold as an unbreakable bundle and there are no add-ons. There are several additional optional cover sections (Fidelity Guarantee, Personal Accident and Terrorism) but these need to be requested by the client.

Premium finance

Premium finance is not actively sold

• Bonuses, commission, and incentives for sales executives

There is a commission structure paid to new business underwriters over and above basic annual salary. Each underwriter is monitored by regular monthly internal audit carried out by senior management in addition to a department internal audit. We are also implementing a new monthly conduct risk review for staff who deal with this product to help demonstrate positive outcomes.
