PRODUCT APPROVAL PROCESS
Has the complexity of the product been considered?	Yes, the product complexity has been considered and it is adapted for this sector of the industry and all customers will be commercial clients such as Sole-traders, Limited Companies and Partnerships.
Is there sufficient information on the product for customers and is it readily available?	Yes, there is sufficient information available for the customer on the product which is contained within policy summary and policy wording.
What is the nature of the product and the risk of consumer detriment related to it?	The nature of the product is tailored for the Pubs, Restaurant & Take-away sector of the industry. Therefore, the risk of consumer harm is low.
Has the scale and complexity of the business of the relevant Insurer/Manufacturer/Distributor been considered?	Yes, we have approached appropriate Insurers who offer property and casualty insurance as a speciality. The Insurers have the relevant expertise for this class of business. Distribution is via regulated sub-brokers who work with us collaboratively to ensure compliance with PROD.
What are the main characteristics and features of the insurance product?	This is a 'package' policy, containing set limits of cover that form part of an unbreakable bundle, tailored to retail businesses.
What does the insurance cover?	The cover includes Property Damage, Business Interruption, Money, Goods in Transit, Employers, Public and Products Liability, Loss of Licence and Legal Expenses.
What does the insurance NOT cover?	Optional covers include Terrorism and Fidelity Guarantee. Risks falling outside England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
Are there any restrictions on cover?	The policy provides adapted cover as specified at the time of Inception and Renewal by the Insured/Broker. Inner limits can be tailored to individual needs.
Where can further information about the policy terms be found?	The Policy Summary and Wording.

TARGET MARKET
Who is the target market?	The target market will be micro, SME, sole trader retailers. The product is focused on shop owners. Their characteristics are providing a specific service and product direct to the public from their own location with limited work away.
What are the potential risks posed to the identified target market and how will these be managed?	The potential risks would be minimal as cover is tailored to meet the specific requirements of the client and the Limits are flexible to meet the Insured's precise needs. Cover is flexible and the Limits can be changed to meet the Insured's requirements.

Who is this product not suitable for?	Risks with a Total Sum Insured of more than £6,000,000 Commercial enterprises outside of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. Risks that are not Shops
What reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that the product is distributed to the identified target market?	We recognise we are not distributing the product directly to customers and therefore ensure it is sold via regulated professional insurance brokers who also have a duty to ensure the product meets their clients' needs.

VULNERABLE CUSTOMERS

Are there likely to be any Vulnerable Customers to the product?	We will maintain awareness of any clients who the broker indicates may be vulnerable, are in financial distress or if they are/were non-domiciled in the UK and English could be their second language.
What are the potential risks posed to Vulnerable Customers and how will these be managed?	We have a dedicated Vulnerable Customer Policy & Procedure which robustly details how staff at DOA identify and assist any identified Vulnerable customers with any potential risks faced. Where a potential vulnerable customer may not understand the content of the policy or coverage our distribution strategy utilises regulated professional Insurance brokers who act on their client's behalf and can relay the content accordingly if the client is having difficulty understanding the documentation. Furthermore we have also created a dedicated Accessibility webpage which may assist customer understanding.

PRODUCT TESTING

Has the product been appropriately tested, including scenario analyses where relevant, before bringing it to market, significantly adapting it, or if the target market has significantly changed? Also, does the product over its lifetime meet the identified needs, objectives, and characteristics of the target market?	This product has been available since 2018, during which time the product has been tested via our select panel of partner brokers, who have been able to determine that this product meets the requirements of the target market. A review of similar products has been done and DOA will continue to review on an ongoing basis when any significant changes are made, to ensure the product remains suitable for the intended market. A product performance review is now in place, consisting of data capture and analysis covering quote conversion, renewal retention, cancellations & claim repudiations and more as detailed below.

DISTRIBUTION STRATEGY

What are the intended distribution channels and are these appropriate for the target market?	The intended distribution strategy is for the product to be sold via regulated professional insurance brokers who have agencies with DOA. Such brokers will appropriately market the product to ensure it meets the needs of the target market above.
Is all appropriate information on the product, approval process and the identified target market made available to distributors so they can understand the identified target market and be able to identify any customers for whom the product is not suitable?	A policy Summary and Wording are available throughout the customer journey. A copy of this Product Review form is available at all times on the website .

REMUNERATION
Is the pricing clear and transparent to end customers and others in the chain?	Yes, the pricing is clear to all and is detailed on the NB/RENL schedule.
How will we ensure we continue to operate fair pricing practices for this product?	Terms and conditions are detailed within the DOA Underwriting Guide. Annual rate increases and commissions are in keeping with the individual binding agreements with the ultimate insurer.
Does the commission splits agreed between Insurers / Underwriters / Brokers bear proportionate resemblance to the work being done for the client?	The remuneration that DOA receives from Insurers is commensurate with the work undertaken and the account management procedures that are required of us. The overall remuneration is in keeping with the market standards for Underwriting agencies of our standing. Remuneration being ceded to our broker partners is in keeping with market standards and varies slightly but on average amounts to between 65% to 75% of the total commission received. On occasion, modified commissions may be individually agreed between DOA and the Broker at Inception or renewal. This is considered fair and reasonably reflects the amount of work involved by each party on behalf of the client. A review of down-line commissions has been undertaken and is considered to be fair and reasonable.
Are Insurers / Underwriters / Brokers making additional money through fees, charges, and premium finance arrangements?	The Standard Fees are £35 applied to MTA's and a maximum 10% of Return Premium on Cancellations. The below shows the charges applied at New & Renewal review, in relation to the Premium. <table style="margin-left: 20px;"> <tr> <td>< £500</td> <td>= £65</td> </tr> <tr> <td>£501 - £1,000</td> <td>= £75</td> </tr> <tr> <td>£1,001 - £2,499</td> <td>= £85</td> </tr> <tr> <td>£2,500 - £4,999</td> <td>= £100</td> </tr> <tr> <td>£5,000 - £9,999</td> <td>= £150</td> </tr> <tr> <td>> £10,000</td> <td>= £200</td> </tr> </table> Higher fees may occasionally be applied to support additional time input where required. There are no hidden charges. Fees are approved by Insurers and stated on the NB/RNWL schedules. Premium finance is not actively sold. Our Brokers add their own fees. We have reviewed these fees and believe fair value is being maintained throughout.	< £500	= £65	£501 - £1,000	= £75	£1,001 - £2,499	= £85	£2,500 - £4,999	= £100	£5,000 - £9,999	= £150	> £10,000	= £200

> £10,000	= £200

PRODUCT VALUE
Is everyone in the distribution chain providing ultimate value to the end consumer?	In conjunction with carefully vetted and well-respected Insurers, DOA has adapted this policy wording specifically to meet the needs of the clients operating within this trade sector. Pricing and coverage are regularly monitored to provide the best levels of cover for the best price to ensure value and peace of mind. We also only deal with professional Insurance intermediaries who are competent within this sector to provide the advice and service required for the end customer. DOA have undertaken a review of down-line broker fees and additional charges, and these are considered to be fair and reasonable.

Does the product in question provide value to end customers both now, for the foreseeable future i.e., policy term, and at potential future renewals? If not, what further actions are required?	Yes. DOA also review policy wordings on a regular basis to ensure the best cover is maintained/provided. In addition, our overall review of this product and PROD MI assures us the product provides value to end customers.

MONITORING/ONGOING REVIEW

How will the product be continuously monitored and regularly reviewed, and who by?	The product will be continually monitored and regularly reviewed at least annually or when any significant changes are made, to ensure the product remains suitable for the intended market. A product performance review is now in place, consisting of data capture and analysis covering quote conversion, renewal retention, cancellations & claim repudiations. A dedicated Product Oversight & Governance Committee has been established, working with our Insurer partners to ensure all compliance with the new requirements and we also have a Product Oversight & Governance Policy & Procedure covering our review and monitoring framework.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Do you foresee any Conflicts of Interest?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Making an unfair and/or unreasonable profit at the customer's expense Premium rates are pre-determined based on nature of trade and theft area and would be adjusted based on perceived risk quality and claims experience, using the DOA Underwriting Guide.• Awarding unfair, unreasonable and/or non-transparent fees in connection with the insurance mediation service the customer uses The fee structure, which has been agreed by the panel of insurers, is fair and reflects the amount of work involved. Higher fees may occasionally be applied to support additional time input where required. Fees are clearly stated on the NB/RNWL schedules.• Add-ons – balancing the benefit to the business with the needs of the customer The Package insurance policy is sold as an unbreakable bundle and there are no add-ons. There are several additional optional cover sections (Fidelity Guarantee, Personal Accident and Terrorism) but these need to be requested by the client.• Premium finance Premium finance is not actively sold.• Bonuses, commission, and incentives for sales executives There is a commission structure paid to new business underwriters over and above basic annual salary. Each underwriter is monitored by regular monthly internal audit carried out by senior management in addition to a department internal audit. We are also implementing a new monthly conduct risk review for staff who deal with this product to help demonstrate positive outcomes.
